NOTIFICATIONS

Damodar Valley, the 11th August 1959

No. 14—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (XIV of 1948), the Corporation hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following amendment to the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations, namely:—

In item 1 of the list of Heads of Departments in Appendix I to the said Regulations, for the word "Secretary", the words "Joint Secretary" shall be substituted.

By order,

U. K. GHOSHAL

General Manager and Secretary

The 16th November 1959

No. 15—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (XIV of 1948), the Corporation hereby makes with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following amendments to the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations, namely:—

I. In Regulation 26, after clause (ii), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(iii) An employee appointed to officiate in a post will draw the presumptive pay of that post.

Provided that on an enhancement in the substantive pay, as a result of increment or otherwise, the pay of such employee shall be refixed from the date of such enhancement as if he was appointed to officiate in that post on that date where such refixation is to his advantage".

II. In Regulation 48, the following proviso shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

"Provided that in the case of journey by road, the distance travelled is more than 20 miles".

III. In Regulation 49, in Section II, under the heading "A. By Rail", after clause (3), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(4) If an employee, who is entitled to travel in first or second class by rail, travels in third class and pays the extra charges for sleeping accommodation provided by the Railways for third class passengers during night journeys, the Controlling Officer may allow him the fare of the accommodation actually used inclusive of the charges for the sleeping accommodation provided it does not exceed the fare of the class in which the employee is entitled to travel".

IV. In Regulation 54, the existing Note in sub-clause (i) of Clause (c) shall be numbered as Note 1 and the following shall be inserted thereunder as Note 2, namely:—

"NOTE 2—An employee who carries his personal effects by road between stations connected by rail may draw actual expenses up to the limit of the amount which would have been admissible had he taken the same quantity by passenger train, but not exceeding the amount which would have been admissible had he taken the maximum number of maunds by goods train".

V. In Regulation 56, the following shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

"Children of an employee, who are studying in educational institutions and who are not actually residing with him at the time of his transfer to a new station but later come to spend the vacation with him at the new station, may be treated as members of his family for the purpose of transfer travelling allowance and allowed the usual travelling allowance, provided all other conditions for grant of travelling allowance are fulfilled".

VI. After Regulation 57, the following Note shall be inserted, namely:—

"NOTE—For the purpose of Regulations 56, and 57, the grade of an employee shall be determined with reference to the facts on the date of his transfer while the number of fares admissible shall be determined with reference to the facts on the date of the journey in respect of which the travelling allowance is claimed, provided that no travelling allowance shall be admissible in respect of a member added to the family after the date of transfer".

VII. In the Contributory Provident Fund Rules (D.V.C.), in Appendix II to the said Regulation—

(1) in rule 8—

(i) for clause (b) of sub-rule (1), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(b) It may be any sum, so expressed, within his/her emoluments, not being less than 8½ per cent thereof"; and

(ii) for sub-rule (4), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"(4) The amount of subscription so fixed will remain unchanged throughout the year:

Provided that it may be enhanced once at any time during the course of a year:

Provided further that if a subscriber is on duty for a part of a month and on leave for the remainder of that month, and if he/she has elected not to subscribe during leave, the amount of the subscription payable shall be in whole rupees proportionate to the number of days spent on duty in the month."

(2) in rule 13, for clause (iv), the following clause shall be substituted namely:—

"(iv) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the subscriber's status which, by customary usage, the subscriber has to incur in connection with marriages, funerals or other ceremonies of persons actually dependent on him."

(3) in rule 14, below clause (a), the following Note shall be inserted, namely:—

"Note—For the purpose of this rule, 'pay' does not include 'dearness pay'".
